

Something to Wonder Upon

Words and Music by Peter Brunette

Moderately ♩ ≈ 124

Verses

1. Long may the Earth go on trac - ing _____ A
 2. Long may the waves and the tem - pests _____
 3. Long may the chill breath of au - tumn _____ ring round her bright yel - low star.

 Bat - ter a bare, lone - ly shore.
 Turn all the green leaves to gold.

Long may the moon make the young lov - ers
 Long may the sound of the thun - der re - Long may the word of the po - et be swoon With the mag - ic she wields from a - sound, _____ And the long may she the bald ea - gle heard _____ And the grand - moth - er's sto - ries gle be

far. _____ Long may the deer in the mead - ow _____ soar. _____ Long may the stout - heart - ed salm - on _____ told. _____ Long may the snow on the moun - tain _____

20

Em A7 D Bm

Suck - le her win - some new fawn,
Fol - low the riv - ers to spawn,
Cap - ture the blush of the dawn,

25

Em A7 D Bm Em

Leav - ing the wild, o - pen heart of a child With some - thing to 30

A7 D D

1, 2. 3.

Ending

won - der up - on. - on, Long may the 36

D7 G Em A7

snow on the moun - tain Cap - ture the blush of the 41

D Bm Em A7 D

dawn, Leav - ing the wild, o - pen heart of a 46

Bm Em A7 D

child With some - thing to won - der up - on.