

Rosalie

Words and music by Peter Brunette

1.

^D It was down by the sea where I met my ^{D7} Rosalie, ^G
^{Em} Down where all the deepest rivers run, ^{A7} ^D
But she told me someday she would have to fly away ^{D7} ^G
^{Em} To find her own true place beneath the sun. ^{A7} ^D ^{D7}

CHORUS:

^G Oh, my darling Rosalie, like a sentry by the sea, ^{A7} ^D ^{Bm}
^{Em} Unwavering, I stand here at my post. ^{A7} ^D ^{D7}
^G Oh, my darling Rosalie, like a river running free, ^{A7} ^D ^{Bm}
^{Em} You're bound to find your way home to the coast. ^{A7} ^D

2.

^D All too soon she was gone, and although the road was long, ^{D7} ^G
^{Em} She knew she'd have to follow every bend. ^{A7} ^D
There were things on her mind. There were mountains to be climbed, ^{D7} ^G
^{Em} Dreams to chase beyond the rainbow's end. ^{A7} ^D ^{D7}

CHORUS:

^G Oh, my darling Rosalie, like a sentry by the sea, ^{A7} ^D ^{Bm}
^{Em} Unwavering, I stand here at my post. ^{A7} ^D ^{D7}
^G Oh, my darling Rosalie, like a river running free, ^{A7} ^D ^{Bm}
^{Em} You're bound to find your way home to the coast. ^{A7} ^D

3.

Once she wrote me a card, said the trav'ling had been hard.
I don't know what she was going through,
Where she's been, what she's done, but I know she's still the one.
Rosalie, I'm still in love with you.

CHORUS:

Oh, my darling Rosalie, like a sentry by the sea,
Unwavering, I stand here at my post.
Oh, my darling Rosalie, like a river running free,
You're bound to find your way home to the coast.

ENDING:

It was down by the sea where I met my Rosalie,
Down where all the deepest rivers run.
