

Come Sit by the Window

Words and music by Peter Brunette

1.

D D7 G
Your voice at the doorstep is the best thing I've heard
D A7 D
Since you walked out and left me without saying a word.
Bm F#m Em Bm
I just knew I had hurt you without quite knowing how.
Em A7
Come sit by the win-dow and talk to me now.
D D7 G
Come sit by the window where we first kissed.
D A7 D
Please let me tell you how much you've been missed.
Bm F#m Em Bm
You're the wind in my mainsail, the sun and the rain.
Em A7 D
Come sit by the win-dow and love me again.

2.

D D7 G
Some thoughtless expressions that once crossed my lips
D A7 D
Made your tender love fall through my fingertips.
Bm F#m Em Bm
My darling, I'll take them back in a heartbeat.
Em A7
Come sit by the win-dow, here on the loveseat.
D D7 G
Come sit by the window in the soft northern light.
D A7 D
My raven-haired beauty, you're a ravishing sight.
Bm F#m Em Bm
You're the wind in my mainsail, the sun and the rain.
Em A7 D
Come sit by the win-dow and love me again.

3.

D D7 G
The sound of your laughter was sweeter than wine,
D A7 D
And heaven was holding your dear hands in mine—

Those hands that still car-ry the key to my heart.

Come sit by the win-dow. Let's make a new start.

Come sit by the window where I've waited for you.

It's never too late for a love so strong and true.

You're the wind in my mainsail, the sun and the rain.

Come sit by the win-dow and love me again.
