

The Willow and the Pear

Words and Music by Peter Brunette

Moderately, with a medium swing ♩ ≈ 114

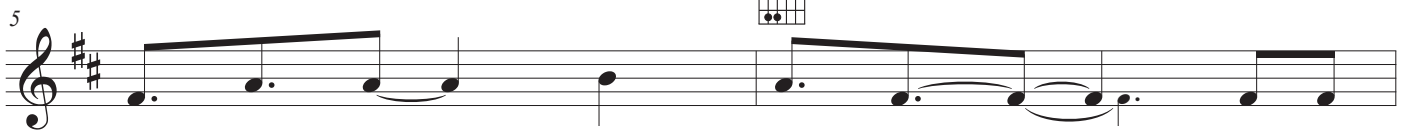

Verses

1. I'm send - ing you ____ this let - ter ____ by the (2.) soon I grew ____ im - pa - tient ____ with the (3.) went to seek ____ my for - tune, ____ as plain, old - fash - ioned post. ____ The del - i - cate ____ moon - beams.

young men of - ten will, ____ To words we put ____ on pa - per ____ are the Caught the main - land fer - ry ____ a - stand be - neath ____ the lime - light ____ in the ones that mean ____ the most. ____ These cross the sea ____ of dreams. ____ And cit - y on ____ the hill. ____ But 9

G D

ques - tions I _____ have scrib - bled _____ don't you tossed me _____ two kis - ses _____ from the for - tune turned _____ to ash - es, _____ the 11

G Bm

call for no _____ re - ply. Just The land - ing on _____ the and bay, _____ And light turned cold _____ and blue, _____

13

F#m rit.

think of them, _____ my dar - ling, _____ as a ten - der - est _____ of kis - ses _____ that would now I live _____ on mem' - ries, _____ as 15

Em A7

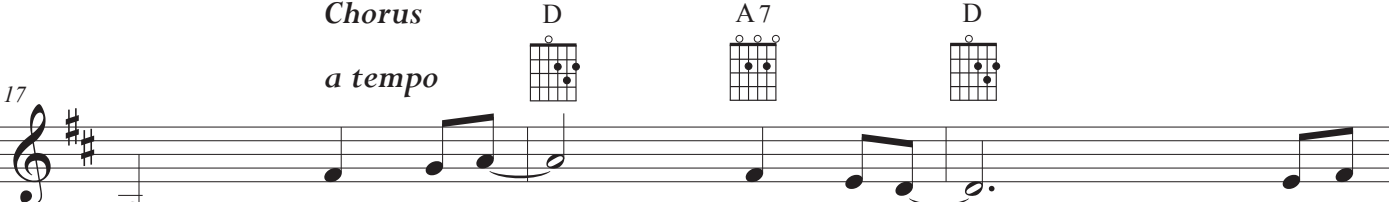

sad, sweet lul - la - by. _____
 ev - er men fall _____ my _____ way. _____
 old men of - ten _____ do. _____

17

Chorus
a tempo

D A7 D

Is the moon _____ out to - night? _____ Does she 20

D7

G

A7

cast her pearl - y light On the wil -

23

D

- low and the pear? And the one

26

A7

D

D7

I left be - hind, Does she ev - er cast her mind

29

G

A7

On the love we used to share?

32

1, 2.

D

G

D

3.

D

G

D

{ 2. Too (share?)
3. I